The basic tenet of the OT is relationship with God by obeying the Law, while in the NT, it is relationship by grace through faith in the finished work of Jesus Christ, who fulfilled all the demands of the Law. I just got some shocking news this morning. AndIrealizedmysuperpower.That judgement seemed to be come to almost unconsciously, and my conviction is that during the time I was not consciously considering the problem, my subconscious had been turning it over and relating it to my memory; it had been held up to the light of the experiences I had had in past years, and the way through the difficulties became obvious...It is only the rare and most complex problems that require the hard toil of protracted mental effort.
