The Seersucker Whipsaw

The disorder of the human soul can be perceived in the light of the general upsetting of balance in the medieval world at certain times of the year - vice overturns virtue, bad language suppresses formal speech, boisterous activities and crude primitive needs replace obedience and decency; there is a sense of chaos and permissiveness which violates the established order of society, mocks and questions authority and disrespects the norms peaceful existence. Are you ready for the voice search tidal wave.
